Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in the Barista position at Starbucks. With a Bachelor of Arts degree in Hospitality Management and three years of experience as a Barista, I have developed a strong foundation in customer service and team collaboration that aligns with the welcoming atmosphere that Starbucks is known for.

Throughout my career, I have honed my skills in communication, problem-solving, and time management. My attention to detail ensures that each beverage crafted meets high standards, while my adaptability allows me to thrive during peak hours. I take pride in creating positive interactions with customers and fostering meaningful connections within the community—values I know are deeply embedded in Starbucks' mission.

In addition to my practical experience, I possess strong interpersonal skills that enable me to work collaboratively with team members. Maintaining cleanliness and organization within the café is a priority for me, as it contributes significantly to an inviting environment for both customers and colleagues alike.

I am passionate about coffee culture and excited about the opportunity to contribute positively at Starbucks. The commitment your company shows toward quality sourcing and community engagement resonates with my own values.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of discussing how my background can be an asset to your team.

Sincerely,
Chris Patel
